

via ANF-News

Kurds and their friends in Europe are organising various actions to protest the isolation of Abdullah Ocalan.

A two-day march was launched in the German city of Bremen yesterday as part of Europe-wide demonstrations against the isolation regime imposed on Kurdish People's Leader Abdullah Ocalan.

The first stage of the march was completed in Delmenhorst yesterday.

Since Friday, participants of the march have covered 30 kilometers on the route from Oldenburg to Bremen.

The march will be followed by a rally in front of the Parliament building in Bremen this afternoon.