A meeting took place in the Austrian city of Graz to support the hunger strike resistance.

Kurds and their friend met in Herrengasse to rally in support to the hunger strike resistance demanding the end of isolation against Kurdish People's Leader Abdullah Öcalan.

The hunger strike resistance is led by DTK co-chair and HDP Hakkari MP Leyla Güven.

At the rally activists carried banners as well as photographs of the hunger strikers and Öcalan and chanted slogans.

Activists handed out leaflets and information about the hunger strike resistance.
